U.S. Magistrate Judge
Petition for Action on Parker, Jessica
Case No. 3:12-00013-08
August 13, 2012

On December 21, 2011, the defendant, Jessica Marie Parker, was released by Your Honor to pretrial services supervision. Defendant Parker resides in the Western District of Tennessee and is supervised by the U. S. Pretrial Services Office in Jackson, Tennessee.

Special Conditions of Pretrial Release:

Please reference the attached Order Setting Conditions of Release.

On May 15, 2012, the initial Petition for Action was submitted to the Court reporting Violation Nos. 1-2 as included below. Pretrial Services recommended that no official Court action be taken at that time. The Court concurred and on May 16, 2012, took no formal action.

PREVIOUSLY REPORTED VIOLATIONS:

Violation No. 1: Failure to report to U. S. Pretrial Services as directed:

According to the Supervising U. S. Pretrial Services Officer in Jackson, Tennessee, the defendant failed to report as directed for the months of January 2012, March 2012, and April 2012. She did report as directed on May 2, 2012.

Violation No. 2: Failure to refrain from the use of controlled substances:

Also according to the Supervising U. S. Pretrial Services Officer in Jackson, Tennessee, the defendant tested positive for marijuana and methamphetamine on May 2, 2012.

NEW VIOLATIONS:

Violation No. 3: Failure to report to U. S. Pretrial Services as directed:

According to the pretrial services officer in the Western District of Tennessee, the defendant failed to report to the U.S. Pretrial Services Office as directed in both June 2012, and August 2012. She has now failed to report as instructed during five of the last seven months of pretrial supervision.

Violation No. 4 :Failure to refrain from the use of controlled substances:

According to the U.S. Pretrial Services Office in Jackson, Tennessee, the defendant submitted a urine specimen on July 18, 2012, which tested presumptive positive for both marijuana and amphetamine. The defendant reportedly denied she had used any illegal drugs since June 2012, when she last smoked marijuana. The specimen was forwarded to the contract drug testing lab for confirmation. The lab report indicated the quantity of urine was insufficient for confirmation.

Violation No. 5: Failure to participate in substance abuse counseling as directed by Pretrial Services:

According to the U.S. Pretrial Services Office in the Western District of Tennessee, the defendant was scheduled for her substance abuse intake/assessment appointment on August 10, 2012, at Quinco Mental Health Center. According to Quinco staff, the defendant called and rescheduled the appointment for August 31, 2012. The rescheduling of this appointment was without the knowledge or consent of the referring pretrial services officer.

Violation No. 6: Failure to submit to drug testing as required by Pretrial Services:

According to the pretrial services officer in Jackson, Tennessee, the defendant was instructed on August 3, 2012, to report to the U.S. Pretrial Services Office for drug testing on August 7, 2012. The defendant advised the pretrial services officer that she had no money for gasoline and would not get paid until August 9, 2012. However, the defendant reportedly stated she would try and borrow money for gasoline to get to the pretrial services office on August 7, 2012. She was advised to contact her pretrial services officer if she was unable to keep the appointment. The defendant failed to report to the pretrial services office on August 7, 2012, and she failed to call. The pretrial services officer attempted to contact the defendant by telephone on August 8, 2012, regarding her failure to report, but could not reach her or leave a message on either the defendant's residential or cellular lines. On August 9, 2012, Ms. Parker left a message at 6:04 a.m. for the pretrial services officer indicating she would report to the pretrial services office later that day. However, she again failed to report or call. On August 10, 2012, the pretrial services officer was again unsuccessful when she tried to contact the defendant by telephone.

Current Status of Case:

According to PACER, this case is set for a pretrial status conference before the Honorable Todd J. Campbell, U. S. District Judge, on November 5, 2012.

Probation Officer Action:

The defendant obviously continues to struggle with her drug addiction. In response, she has been referred by U.S. Pretrial Services to a contract treatment provider for intake, assessment, and any recommended follow up counseling services. However, the defendant recently had the assessment postponed for three weeks without informing the U.S. Pretrial Services Office. Additionally, the defendant has been repeatedly reprimanded for failing to report to Pretrial Services as directed. This level of sanction has apparently not worked with this defendant. As stated above, she has failed to report as directed during five of the past seven months of pretrial supervision. Finally, the defendant has admitted smoking marijuana as recently as June 2012, and appears to have also used some form of amphetamine during mid-July 2012.

Pretrial Services does not believe the defendant is amenable to continued supervision.

Respectfully Petitioning the Court as Follows:

It is respectfully requested that the Court set this matter for hearing so that the defendant can answer why her bond and pretrial services supervision should not be revoked.
